Feedback – We value your feedback as an owner. Please speak to one of the team on your visit, or alternatively provide feedback through the ROA QR code that is available on all O&T facilities.

Hosts – Helen Williams is available throughout the day should you have any queries.

Owners Restaurant – The Pavilion is a dedicated restaurant reserved exclusively for Owners & Trainers, located on the left as you come through the Owners & Trainers entrance. A complimentary two course luncheon is served throughout the day with a full pay bar and if you have any dietary requirements please let us know in advance. We regret that tables cannot be reserved for the day. Food is served up until the last race. Alternatively we offer an owners discount in the racecourse restaurant – please contact the racecourse direct to book.

Owners Viewing – Owners are welcome to watch from all public areas and we do also have a dedicated owners viewing stand which is situated just passed the Brasserie on the edge of the Grandstand.

Parade Ring – We endeavour to offer eight places per runner in the Parade Ring before each race. Please note that this number may have to be lowered in the instance of large fields, but will be confirmed at the entrance. You will be issued paddock passes on arrival which will allow Parade Ring access for your specific race. We also have an additional owners briefing area, just at the entrance of the paddock for additional owners without a paddock pass

Photographer – Should you wish to order any photographs from the day, they will be available via our raceday photographer John Hoy's website www.hoycubed.com

Racecards – A racecard will be available to collect at the Owners' Entrance. You will also be sent a link to download a digital version ahead of racing.

Race Winner – Connections of the winning horse will be invited to the podium for a photo and invited by Jayne Smith to watch a race replay and share a celebratory drink in our winning connections suite after the race. All winning owners will be presented with a memento on the day together with a photograph and a USB copy of the race. Winning and placed connections may request unlimited complimentary USB copies of their race, through the host in Winning Connections.

Site Map – There is a site map in the front of the racecard and also please see a link to it here: www.lingfieldpark.co.uk/raceday-experience/racecourse-map
